

文化

Culture

A sanctuary for revitalization!

Musashi Mitake Shrine | Ome

Also see the shops in the approach!

Mt. Mitake is 929m high and stands at the entrance to Chichibu-Tama-Kai National Park. The Musashi Mitake Shrine was built on the summit of this peak, which has been regarded as a sacred mountain since long ago. It is a prestigious mountain shrine with many myths and tales, and visitors can experience the feeling of being purified just by standing and praying in front of the magnificent shrine. The spectacular view of the Kantō Plain from the grounds is also breathtaking.

Akiruno

Musashi Mitake Shrine

Links

MAP E2 176, Mitakesan, Ome-shi ¥Free

Also worth visiting

Chofu

Jindaiji Temple

The grounds are surrounded by the rich nature and natural springs of Musashino, with tea houses and popular Soba restaurants near the gates.

MAP C7 5-15-1, Moto machi, Jindaiji, Chofu-shi ¥Free(Shakado 300yen)

Fuchu

Ōkunitama Shrine

A shrine with 1900 years of history, dedicated to the protector of the Musashi region. It is also known for the "Kurayami Festival" that is held each year in May.

MAP C6 3-1, Miya machi, Fuchu-shi ☉Free

Hino

Takahata-Fudosen

This is one of the 3 major Fudō Myō-ō statues in Kanto. The temple grounds have many other sites worth seeing such as the five-stored pagoda.

MAP C5 733, Takahata, Hino-shi ☉Free