

Refresh at a natural hot spring

Akigawa Keikoku Seoto-no-Yu Spa | Akiruno

Tokyo has a wide variety of natural hot springs that are beneficial for your health. Some are in the city, its outskirts, or at popular tourist destinations. The Akigawa Keikoku Seoto-no-Yu Spa is a popular day-trip hot spring near the Akigawa Valley, which has one of the most famous streams in the Tama area. Visitors can experience a moment of physical and mental rejuvenation in these quality waters.

Akiruno

Akigawa Keikoku Seoto-no-Yu Spa

MAP D3 565, Otsu, Akiruno-shi ¥900yen
 10:00-22:00/Closed on the 2nd Wednesday of March, June, September, December

Links

Musashimurayama

Murayama Onsen Katakuri-no-Yu

A natural spring drawn from 1,500m below the ground. The facility also has an indoor pool, restaurant, and relaxation space.

MAP D5 5-29-1, Honcho, Musashimurayama-shi ¥800yen (3h 900yen on Saturday, Sunday, Holidays) 10:00-23:00/Closed on the 3rd Mondays

Inagi

Inagi Tennen Onsen Tokino Irodori

This facility is equipped with various baths including a rock bath, and Ishigama (stone pot-shaped) bath.

MAP C6 6-13, Koyodai, Inagi-shi ¥800yen (¥950yen Saturday, Sunday, Holidays) 9:00-25:00 (7:00-25:00 Saturday, Sunday, Holidays)/Closed on the 3rd Tuesday of March, June, September, December

Hachioji

Keio Takaosan Onsen / Gokurakuyu

Conveniently located at the entrance of Mt. Takao. The facility also has a napping-space where visitors can rest after bathing.

MAP C4 2229-7, Takao cho, Hachioji ¥1000yen 8:00-23:00/No holidays

Hinode machi

TsuruTsuru Onsen

Located at the foot of Mt. Hinode and surrounded by lush greenery. It is a strongly alkaline hot spring and beneficial for the skin.

MAP E3 4718, Ookuno, Hinode machi ¥820yen 10:00-20:00/Closed on the 3rd Tuesday

Okutama machi

Okutama Onsen Moegi-no-Yu

Famous for its Okutama Onsen spring that is drawn from deep below the ground. The outdoor bath offers a view of the Tama River stream and mountain ranges.

MAP E2 119-1, Hikawa, Okutama machi ¥2h 780yen 9:30-19:00 (Changed irregular by seasons) /Closed on Mondays

Hinohara mura

Hinohara Onsen Center Kazuma-no-Yu

A public hot spring facility in a village that coexists with its surrounding rich nature. Many hikers and climbers visit as it is located in a mountainous area.

MAP D1 2430, Hinohara mura ¥820yen 10:00-19:00 (20:00 Saturday, Sunday, Holidays)/Closed on Mondays