

Food #10
fruits

Fruit picking

area

Kitatama. Minamitama

Choose your favorite fruit in the peaceful orchard.
The seasonal taste you enjoy there is a reward available only in the season.
Feast to your heart's content on the blessings of Tokyo Tama's nature.

Takao grapes

They are characterized by a strong sweetness, and a large oval grain-like appearance.

Yamauchi Vineyard

☎03-3300-5741 📍3-28-7 Wakabacho, Chōfu ☉10:00 to 15:00 / Open for only a couple of days in the final weeks of August, be sure to check their website.

Lake Tama Pears

Established in 1959 in the 4 districts adjacent to Lake Tama, its also a popular gift.

Mizutaen

☎42-392-1708 📍3-23-8 Ontacho, Higashimurayama ☉10:00 to 16:00 / Mid-August to Early-September, Open irregularly during the period

Inagi Pears

Said to have originated in the Edo period, these pears are now a speciality of Inagi.

Seigyokuen

☎042-377-6156 📍2025 Higashi Naganuma, Inagi ☉10:00 to 17:00 / Open daily from early September to early October.

Tokyo TAMA

FRUITS PICKING

Tokyo Tama, a countryside landscape that has been cultivated for fruit since ancient times. As Autumn rolls around each year, enjoy tasting and picking at each farm. These ripe, bountiful fruit are a unique Tama flavor that can only be tasted locally. Here are some typical tastes.

Musashimurayama Tangerines

"Tokyo Sayama mandarin oranges" with highly refined sweetness and acidity can be found cultivated.

Kobayashi Farm

☎042-561-3305 📍5-84-1 Nakato, Musashimurayama ☉10:00 to 16:00 (Open from 9:00 on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) / Open from early to late November, closed during the rainy season

Kodaira blueberry

This Blueberry Garden is the first place in Japan where blueberries were grown. Sell gifts daily from Late June to Early October.

Shimamura Blueberry Garden

☎042-461-7824 📍1-10-13 Hanakoganei Minamicho, Kodaira ☉10:00 to 12:00, 15:00 to 17:00 / Open from July 20th to the end of August, Closed on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays during open season