Showa Kinen Park

Theme Recent Play

Feel the transition of the of the four seasons. An oasis in the city, with lots of activities to enjoy. Going for walks, keeping active with playground equipment, and recently Segway tours are all popular things to do.

You may just discover new ways to have fun from time to time, too.

I Showa Memorial Park

The seasonal flowers and the autumn leaves of ginkgo and maple trees are well worth seeing. Recently, a tour around the park by Segway (reservation required) has also become available.

☎042-528-1751, #3173 Midori, Tachikawa City ☎9:30-17:00 (entry times vary depending on the season) / Closed on the fourth Monday of February and the next day

IV Tachikawa Disaster-prevention Education Centre

A disaster prevention facility, with a variety of rooms where you can experience: mock earthquakes, a smoke room and a rescue corner: learning while having fun.

V GREEN SPRINGS

"GREEN SPRINGS" Opens April 2020!
A large-scale complex area created in the Tachikawa City Green Area. Among a collection of the largest in next-gen halls, shops and offices in the Tama area, the rooftop Infinity pool of the SORANO HOTEL is talked about as the hottest topic

Tachikawa

Play Area MAP

Tachikawa is a city of culture.
A town that anyone can enjoy!

III The National Institute for Polar Research & The Polar Science Museum

A public relations and exhibition facility that conveys the "now" of the Antarctic and Arctic. The touchable real displays and live videos are popular attractions.

¥Free admission 10:00 to 17:00 / Closed Sunday, Mondays, and holidays

II TACHIHI BEACH

Japan's largest fake beach BBQ area. Bring-your-own-style BBQ with equipment rental included in the basic fee.

☎042-512-8719, #935 Izumicho, Tachikawa
☎10:00 to 15:00, 16:00 to 22:00 / No holiday (reservation required)

A new block "GREEN SPRINGS" will be born an 8 minute walk from Tachikawa Station. The concept is "Wellbeing Town". Become a town where sensibility is nurtured by nature. I'm excited about Tachikawa, which keeps evolving.
