Finding Healing Animals

From ants to elephants, discover animals of all shapes and sizes in the Tama Zoological Park in the Tama Hills.

Become mesmerized by the tower of over 10 giraffes as they delicately eat their lunch, leaf by leaf.

Giraffe

Chimpanzee

Be amazed by these chimpanzees' high athletic ability as they play with athletic playground equipment and climb trees.

Koala

Popular with zoos since they were exhibited in Japan in 1984, can you spot them eating lunch up in the trees?

Tasmanian devil

This carnivorous marsupial is an endangered animal. Despite the name, they are very tender animals.

See the featured Skywalk, a rope walkway suspended about 15m above the ground. Closed from December to March.

Orangutan

Red panda

Play hide and seek with the beautiful lesser panda as it winds its way up and through the trees.

Insect Ecology Gardens

Colorful butterflies dance throughout the year in the large greenhouse, you can observe them while you stroll through the gardens.

Keio Asobi no Mori HUGHUG

Indoor facility for children themed off of the 'mokuiku', 'taikuu' and 'chiiku' educational models. Among the other features, the net playground equipment, Japan's largest, is a major favorite.
