

Fussa

Theme Vintage Tour

A retro American town in an unassuming Japanese district, makes Fussa an enticing place to visit. A truly unique area, filled with charming shops and cafes.

FUSSA BASESIDE STREET

Vintage Tour

The atmosphere of 1960s America in 2020s Japan!

Higashi-Fussa Sta.

"America in Tokyo", travel to Fussa and experience the retro vibe of America from another time, but in...Japan? As strange as it seems, they even have their own Route 16, perfect for a relaxing walk.

Fussa Baseside Street

Nicknamed "Route 16", this walkway winds its way around the Yokota Air Base and is at the heart of Fussa tourism. Unique shops lie sprawled along it, selling everything from retro furniture to retro clothes!

☎ 042-513-0432 (Fussa Musashino Shopping Street Promotion Association)
📍 Fussa, Fussa

Fussa American House

Open to the public on weekends, this community space in a 1950s military house is filled with colourful pop interiors, as well as photo panels detailing the history of Fussa.

☎ 042-513-0432 🏠 614, 2476-1 Fussa, Fussa ⌚ 11:00-17:00/Closed from Monday to Thursdays(Open in case of holidays)

U.S. AIR FORCE Yokota Air Base

Every year, this American Air Base hosts the Japan-US Friendship Festival. With aircraft exhibits sat next to American food trucks, come and learn about the military while munching on a hot dog.

Stroll the streets and if you need to eat, grab a delicious

Fussa Dog!

Born in Fussa, the "Fussa-dog" is a Japanese twist on traditional hot dogs, made from local pork and only sold in 9 stores around the town.
<http://fussadog.jp>

INFORMATION

🚗 About 55 min from Shinjuku Station by JR via Tachikawa Station, and Haijima Station. Get off at Higashi-Fussa Station, followed by 5 minutes walk.

📞 Fussa City Tourist Association ☎ 042-551-2927