

Culture #13
Local Community

Tachikawa Manga Park

Theme Magical reading space

Forget everything you thought you knew about libraries! Filled with towering reading nooks where you can dive into one of thousands of books, this incredible building is also home to the centre of culture for the town.

Musashino

Musashino Place

This building looks ready for take off, with its smooth curves and spaceship like windows! Tucked inside you'll find a little cafe, for a relaxing drink.

☎0422-30-1900 🏠2-3-18 Kyonan, Musashino 🕒9:30-22:00 (Please check the website) / Closed Wednesdays (the next day if Wednesday is a public holiday)

Built into the leading car of an out of service Seibu Line train, this 50 year old little library still has the seats and hanging straps from its former life.

☎042-394-2900 (Higashimurayama Chuo Library)

🏠1-4-1 Misumi, Higashimurayama

🕒Wednesdays 10:00-12:00, 14:00-16:30
Saturdays 14:00-16:30 (Closed in case of holiday)

Higashimurayama

Kumegawa Train Library

Tachikawa

Tachikawa Manga Park

With tatami mats as far as the eye can see, this house of manga is the perfect place to grab a story and crash out on the floor.

☎042-529-8682 🏠Tachikawa City Children's Future Center 2F 3-2-26 Nishiki, Tachikawa 🕒10:00-18:00 (Please check the website) / All year around

A READING JOURNEY
THROUGH SPACE AND TIME
IN TOKYO TAMA

Immerse yourself
in the world of books
in this unique space.

Tachikawa Manga Park
Mr. Takagi

Congratulations!
Your local library
evolved into Mega Library! Find your nook, grab your book and settle down for hours of relaxing fun.

A private library bursting with Shojo manga. The collection includes nearly 60,000 books, mainly magazines and books up to 2000, all donated by Shojo manga fans nationwide.

☎042-519-9155 🏠155-5 Tsunajiro, Akiruno

🕒13:00-18:00 (on Saturdays from April to October) / Closed from November to March

Akiruno

Shoujo Manga Kan

Mizuho

Mizuho Town Library

Renovated in 2022. In a space where neon lights harmonise with the warmth of wood, a cosy place will unfold where you can relax and connect with books and people.

☎042-557-5614 🏠1962 Ishihata, Mizuho machi

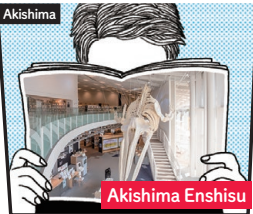

🕒9:00-18:00 (-20:00 on Thursdays) / Closed on Mondays and third Fridays.

Opened in 2020 under the symbol of a fossilized Akishima whale from 2 million years ago, this public library is also home to a museum and cafe.

☎042-543-1523 🏠3-3-15 Tsutsujigaoka, Akishima

🕒10:00-20:00 (-18:00 on weekends and public holidays) / Closed Mondays (the next day if Monday is a public holiday)

Akishima

Akishima Enshisu

Kokubunji

Tokyo Metropolitan Tama Library

With over 18,000 of the past years magazines and over 240,000 children's and youth materials, the Tokyo Magazine Bank has the largest collection in Japan!

☎042-359-4020 🏠2-2-26 Izumi, Kokubunji 🕒10:00-

21:00 (-17:30 on weekends and public holidays) / Please check the website for the closing days.