

Ome

Theme Retro Feel

Travel back to the "Retro" Showa era while walking around JR Ome Station. As you walk, see how many cat motifs you can find, hidden in plain sight.

purrfect Fun Ome Retro Walk

In Ome, where the silk industry once boomed, cats are seen as a lucky charm. How many cats can you find in the retro movie billboards as you wander the streets?

The term "Showa Retro" originated here in the town of Ome.

NEW

Cultural property turns into a movie theater

Cinema Neko

The only wooden mini-theater in Tokyo that opened in 2021. The light blue exterior walls and beamed ceiling remain as they are, and the interior is filled with the warmth of wood.

☎ 0428-28-0051 🏠 3-123 Nishiwake, Ome
🕒 9:30-22:00 / Closed Tuesdays

Ome sta

Aome-chan Mascot,
Now on sale!

Showa Gentokan

A permanent exhibition of cat artworks from local artists "Q Kobo", a mother and daughter duo based in Ome city.

☎ 0428-20-0234 🏠 9 Sumie, Ome
🕒 10:00-17:00 / Closed Mondays and Tuesdays
(The next day if it is a public holiday).

Sumiyoshi Shrine Aomebyososhin

As you make your way to Sumiyoshi Shrine don't miss out on the lucky cat, enshrined along the walkway. At the torii gate, you'll also find the famous Ebisu and Daikokuten cats. 🏠 12 Sumie, Ome

Showa no Nekomachi Nyanyamagari

A mysterious snicket near the station, filled with comical cats of all shapes and sizes.

🏠 252 Nakacho, Ome

Nekowa
Tsuraiyo

Yojimbo
Neko

Kaze no Ane no
Nyausicaa

INFORMATION

🚗 Get off at Ome Station. About 70 min from Shinjuku Station to Ome Station by JR via Tachikawa Station.

Ome Tourist Information Center

☎ 0428-20-0011

Ome Cinematic Road

Visit the shopping street where the heart of Retro Showa still beats.

🏠 Route 28, Sumie, Ome

Showa Retro Packaging Museum

Find a healthy dose of nostalgia, with household goods such as sweets, medicines, toys, and retro movie billboards from 1940 to 1955.

☎ 0428-20-0234 🏠 65 Sumie, Ome
🕒 10:00-17:00 / Closed Mondays to Thursdays