

Experience #14
Handicraft

Choroku Kiln

Theme Handicraft

That which is made by the sweat of your brow, is much more likely to make people say, “wow”. Call on your ingenuity and creativity and enjoy the process to the fullest.

[Choroku Kiln]

A ceramic art studio at the foot of Mt. Jinba. In the class, they'll teach you molding, shaving, and glazing. The keys to the kiln are there for the taking. A gallery next to the studio.

4344 Kamionagata, Hachioji
For inquiries and reservations,
please email: jjimba.choroku@gmail.com

*The process will be divided into 3 parts.

"Please enjoy the feel of the clay as you shape it with child-like wonder."
Mrs. Kamishima

[Salikhlah.]

Setting up a small hut at the foot of Mt. Jinba, we produce a range of leather goods and jewelry. Visit our charming little shop or workshops held regularly at the Takao Hotel "Takaone".

Kawaino, Kamionagata, Hachioji
For inquiries and reservations,
please email: info@salikhlah.com

"If you hit the engraving on the leather in different ways repeatedly, it will be even more unique and interesting!"
Mrs. Takezawa

Immerse yourself in the artisans vision of the world

Welcome!

Atelier exploration

In Tama, Tokyo, there are many artisans engrossed in the work in the tranquility of their atelier.
Visit what is seldom witnessed and try your hand at a craft of your own.

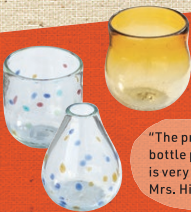

"The allure of Japanese paper is that there are many steps that can be individualized. Each concept yields something distinct."
Mr. Ozawa

[Akiruno Furusato Kobo Gundogami House]

A base for handing down the "Gundo" gami (paper) designated as an intangible cultural property of the city. Workshops are held to make and dye paper, brooches and hand-fans with this age-old method.

671 Otsu, Akiruno
For inquiries and reservations,
please email: furusato-kobo@nifty.com

"The process of turning scrap bottle pieces into works of art is very beautiful and moving."
Mrs. Hiraiwa

[Rainbow Leaf]

An innovative studio that makes household items from recycled glass. The soft appearance by the unique fluctuations and shapes is the charm of hand-blown glass. You will be blown away by the goods.

2-34-10 Shinmachi, Ome
For inquiries and reservations,
please email: info@rainbowleaf.jp

